

Position: Radiology Information Analyst

Location: Triad Radiology – Location to be determined

Schedule: 8a – 5p Monday - Friday
Total hours per week = 40
Call rotation at least 1 week per month
This is a full-time position with benefits.

Job Summary: This position is responsible for troubleshooting, support, and problem resolution to all end users including radiologists and technologists. Responsibilities also include utilizing Helpdesk software to record, track and monitor work issues as needed. A knowledge of HL7, DICOM, and SQL database is preferred. Understanding clinical workflow and excellent communication skills are critical requirements.

Qualifications:

Required:

- High school diploma required; Associate degree preferred.
- Minimum five years' imaging experience or similar medical/healthcare IT experience
- Knowledge of working with Windows Desktop Operating Systems, MS Office Application Suite, and MS Outlook
- Excellent communication skills
- Desire to be a supportive team member

Salary Range: Starting pay depends on experience.

Interested applicants should contact Sheila Hutchinson shutchison@triadradiology.com